

104
8 March 1954

Mr Ralph W. Tyler,
Director of
Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences,
4901 South Ellis Avenue,
Chicago 15 (Ill.)

Dear Mr Tyler,

Thank you very much for yours of February 18. Personally
I feel that the object of the Center is somewhat remote from my own objects, but I would like to recommend for consideration my colleague of. Fred. L. Polak on whom I am adding some information. I may add that of. Polak made a number of contributions to ^{the} Sociology of cultural development which are considered very important in this country. He is at the present time being a deputy-director of the Central Planning Bureau of the Netherlands Government since 1948 and was in charge of employment policy since 1951. He covers a wide field of activity between economics and sociology.

Thanking you very much for your interest,

I am,

yours very sincerely,

8 March 1954

101

Mr. Ralph W. Tyler,
Director of
Center for Advanced Study in the
Behavioral Sciences,
1901 South Ellis Avenue,
Chicago 15 (Ill.)

Mr. Tyler,

Thank you very much for your letter of February 18. Personally
I feel that the object of the Center is somewhat remote from my own interests, but I would like to recommend for consideration my colleagues of Fred. L. Polak on whom I am adding some information. I may add that of Polak made a number of contributions to sociology of cultural development which are considered very important in this country. He is at the me time being a deputy-director of the Central Planning Bureau of the Dutch Government since 1948 and was in charge of employment policy since 1951. He covers a wide field of activity between economics and sociology.

Thanking you very much for your interest,

I am,

Yours very sincerely,