Dr. Mohan Sinha Mehta,
High Commissioner for India,
K a r a c h i.

Dear Dr. Mehta,

Shortly after having written my previous letter to you I detected that I had misunderstood your position in Karachi. Please, accept my excuses for the error committed. Thank you very much for your kind letter of December 15 and for your invitation. Unfortunately my plans had to be changed a little bit and for several reasons I preferred to go back by the special plane chartered for the conference on December 22 from Bombay. Although very grateful for your invitation I could not therefore accept it, which you will, I hope, understand. The days spent on our way from New Delhi to Calcutta and in Calcutta and Bombay only reinforced the impressions of which I wrote you. I was most grateful for this visit to your country.

Hoping that another opportunity will present itself to meet you again,

I am,

Yours very sincerely,
