

25 February 1950

Dr H. Staehle,
Economic Commission for Europe,
Palais des Nations,
Geneva.

My dear Staehle,

Since I have to deliver a speech on Saturday night, 11 March in Antwerp I intend to travel to Basle on Sunday the 12th and to continue on Monday morning.

I wonder whether the E.C.E. would be willing to supply me a small amount of Swiss francs in advance in order to pay for my hotel in Basle. Of course any alternative arrangement would be equally welcome.

I shall have to leave on Saturday the 18th in the afternoon in order to have the train from Basle to the Hague early on Sunday morning.

I am sorry to disturb you with this matter but I hope one of your assistants will be able to help me.

With all best wishes,