Dear Professor Lindahl,

Thank you very much for your letter of November 9. I was very glad to have news from you and I was particularly interested in your communications on Swedish and English economists.

Thank you very much too for the two english publications you forwarded to me. They are particularly useful to our work.

Am I rightly informed that a new report on compensating government expenditures in Sweden has been published?

With best personal regards,

Yours very sincerely

Dear Sir,

I am very pleased to hear that the Government expenditure in Sweden has been very large and I am very glad to hear that a new report on consumption is now being prepared. I am very glad to hear that the new report will be very good and that the new report will be very good.

Yours truly,

I am very glad to hear that the new report will be very good and that the new report will be very good. I am very glad to hear that the new report will be very good.

Very truly yours,
