

February 1950

Salzburg

Miss Deirdre Butler,
European Secretary,
Salzburg Seminar in American Studies
Schloss Leopoldskron,
Salzburg,
Austria

Dear Miss Butler,

In reply to you: P.S. I am sorry to state that I do not know any students in the special fields of your winter Seminar being held in March. Social relations, however, are not now a subject dealt with at the Rotterdam School of Economics. Hence I suggest that you get in touch with the following of my colleagues who students may be working in this field:

Prof. dr P.J.Bouman, Moddermanlaan 10, Groningen;
Prof. dr J.P.Kruijt, Maliebaan 79, Utrecht;
Prof. Hofstee. c/o Landbouw Hogeschool, Wageningen;
Prof. dr A.N.J. den Hollander, Watteaustraat 46, Amsterdam-z;
Prof. F. van Heek, Ter Hoffsteedeweg 13, Overveen.

February 1950

Miss Delphine Butler,
European Secretary,
European Seminar in American Studies,
University of London.

I send an answer to Miss Hoffman about the question you refer to on the first page of your letter.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Miss Butler,

In reply to you P.S. I am sorry to state that I do not know any students in the social fields of your winter seminar being held in March. Social relations, however, are not now a subject dealt with at the Rotterdam School of Economics. Hence I suggest that you get in touch with the following of my colleagues who students may be working in this field:

Prof. dr P.J. Bouman, Middelsteindijk 10, Groningen;
Prof. dr J.P. Arnulf, Kalfjesdijk 79, Utrecht;
Prof. Hofstee, v.o. Landbouw Hogeschool, Wageningen;
Prof. dr A.H.J. den Hollander, Willemsstraat 16, Amsterdam-2;
Prof. F. van Haek, Ter Hofstedeeweg 13, Overveen.