Dear Smithies,

I am now able to let you know that I have been granted a year's leave of absence from the Netherlands School of Economics. I am therefore able to accept the invitation extended to me in your letter of February 11, 1955 to join the teaching staff of Harvard University for the academic year 1956/57. I want to repeat my sincere thanks to the Faculty for their confidence in me. It will be a great pleasure for me to assume this task.

Yours very sincerely,

(J. Tinbergen)
