

45
The Hague
Wassenaar, May 28th 1951

To the Secretary of The Econometric Society
The University of Chicago
Chicago 37
Illinois U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Simpson,

The undersigned, Prof. Dr. J. Tinbergen, The Hague, and Prof. W. J. de Langen, Wassenaar, are proposing as a member of The
Econometric Society:

Dr. B. H. de Jongh, Herengracht 519-525, Amsterdam,
Managing Director of the United Assurance-company Netherland Inc.,
Herengracht 519-525, Amsterdam.

Dr. De Jongh is an economist, specially dealing with the mathematical theory of insurance, and a serious student interested in the objectives of the Society.

Yours faithfully,

12/1 The Hague, May 28th 1921
Wassenaar

7/2

To the Secretary of The Econometric Society
The University of Chicago
Chicago 37
Illinois U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Simpson,

The undersigned, Prof. Dr. J. Timmerman, The Hague, and
Prof. W. J. de Langen, Wassenaar, are proposing as a member of The
Econometric Society:

Dr. B. H. de Jongh, Herengracht 519-525, Amsterdam,
Managing Director of the United Assurance-company Netherland Inc.,
Herengracht 519-525, Amsterdam.

Dr. De Jongh is an economist, specially dealing with the mathematical theory of insurance, and a serious student interested in the objectives of the Society.

Yours faithfully,