Dear Prof. Huggins,

The degree of maturity of Jochems is not not in any way different from the other man I spoke about with you, namely Linneman. On the contrary, Jochems has more experience in the work of the Netherlands Economic Institute. I am sure you will find him very able too. He did very well in an important piece of work in research concerning the salaries of medical specialists. I hope you will be able to attract him. Please, in that case let me know from time to time whether you are satisfied.

Yours very sincerely,

J. TIMMERMAN
