Dear Mr Parthasarathi,

Thank you for your letter of October 1. My difficulty is that at this moment no scholarships are made available by the Dutch government which would apply to your case. I wonder, however, whether not the Rockefeller Foundation would be able and willing to give you such a scholarship. I had the pleasure in the past to advise them on this matter and I am willing to do so in your case. In order to be able, however, to advise them in some more detail I should have some more particulars about you, although it seems to me that Professor Madhava's advice probably would count more. Did you already try this way?

Hoping to hear from you,

I am,

yours very sincerely,

You should apply to the Rock. F. mentioning that I am prepared to support your application. Also ask for Prof. Madhava, if Prof. Madhava does so.

Dear Mr. [Name],

I have your letter of [Date] regarding [Subject]. I am sorry that I cannot give you a more definitive answer at this time, but the matter is still under review. I will be sure to contact you again as soon as a final decision has been reached.

Very truly yours,
