

Prof. Dr J. Tinbergen

Den Haag, 3rd November 1955
Sijzenlaan 41,

Professor Ingvar Svennilson,
Ekensbgsv. 1 Pa,
Drottningholm,
Stockholm.

Dear Svennilson,

I want to apologize also by letter for not having been able to accept your very kind invitation to stop at Stockholm. I had to be back in The Hague on Saturday morning and there appeared not to be another connexion than the plane I had already booked for. To me it was a great pity that I could not have the pleasure and advantage of a discussion with some of my Swedish colleagues. I tried to telephone you, as suggested by Mrs Svennilson, but I did not get any reply; probably you were not in your room. If by any chance you would pass through Holland I hope we may have the pleasure of your visit. With best personal regards,

yours very sincerely,

(J. Tinbergen)

Den Haag, 3rd November 1955
Sijzenlaan 41,

Prof. Dr J. Timmergen

Stockholm.
Drottningholm,
Ekensbyav. 1 B,
Professor Ingvar Svennilson,

Dear Svennilson,

I want to apologize also by letter for not having been able to accept your very kind invitation to stop at Stockholm. I had to be back in The Hague on Saturday morning and there appeared not to be another connection than the plane I had already booked for. To me it was a great pity that I could not have the pleasure and advantage of a discussion with some of my Swedish colleagues. I tried to telephone you, as suggested by Mrs Svennilson, but I did not get any reply; probably you were not in your room. If by any chance you would pass through Holland I hope we may have the pleasure of your visit. With best personal regards,

Yours very sincerely,

(J. Timmergen)