

J. TINBERGEN

DEN HAAG, 27 October 1954
Sijzenlaan 41

130
Mr C.M. PALVIA,
ECAFE,
Paruskawan Palace,
Rajadamnern Ave,
Bangkok, Thailand

My dear Palvia,

I got yours of October 12 and the copies of the cheques. I am afraid I should have written you that I got both cheques already, so that everything is all right now up to f 1200.-. I also saw several weeks ago Mr van Wageningen a couple of days after I got your approval on the proposed changes in the cover. I am going to see him to-morrow in Rotterdam in order to find out why I did not yet get the copies. He promised me to do so. Meanwhile I collected a small list of applicants for your book. Please, find the names at the foot of this page. As you may remember there may be a small deficit to be covered (Mr van Wageningen's offer being somewhat more than f 1200.-) and I wonder whether I should not simply use the proceeds of the first few copies in order cover this. I will let you know the account as soon as I get it.

We were much amused by the history of Tineke's letter.

With best regards,
yours very sincerely,

N. Fuad Cobanoglu , 29 Menekse Sokak, ANKARA
Prof. Ferd. di Fenizio, L'Industria, Via Farneti 8, MILAN
Revista di Economia Politica L'Industria, Via Farneti 8,
MILAN
University of California, Berkeley 4, Cal.
Librairie PAYOT, Lausanne (Switzerland)
Mouton & Co n.v. Z.O. Buitensingel 150 b, the Hague
Oxford Book & Stationery CO. Scindia House, New Delhi

J. TIMMERMAN

27 October 1954
Sijmenian 41
DEN HAAG

Mr C.M. PALVIA,
HOGER, Pavlovskaya Palace,
Katschmann Ave.,
Bamberg, Thailand

My dear Palvia,

I got yours of October 12 and the copies of the cheques. I am afraid I should have written you that I got both cheques already, so that everything is all right now up to £1200.--. I also saw several weeks ago Mr van Wageningen a couple of days after I got your approval on the proposed changes in the cover. I am going to see him to-morrow in Rotterdam in order to find out why I did not yet get the copies. He promised me to do so. Meanwhile I collected a small list of applicants for your book. Please find the names at the foot of this page. As you may remember there may be a small deficit to be covered (Mr van Wageningen's offer being somewhat more than £1200.--) and I wonder whether I should not simply use the proceeds of the first few copies in order cover this. I will let you know the account as soon as I get it.

We were much amused by the history of Timke's letter.
With best regards,
Yours very sincerely,

N. Prad Gobanoglu, 29 Menekes Sokak, ANKARA
Prof. Ferd. di Zenizio, Via Bernetti 8, MILAN
Revista di Economia Politica I'Industria, Via Bernetti 8,
MILAN
University of California, Berkeley 4, Cal.
Librairie PAYOT, Lausanne (Switzerland)
Mouton & Co n.v. E.O. Buitenslangel 150 b, the Hague
Oxford Book & Stationery Co. Scindia House, New Delhi