

PROF. DR J. TINBERGEN

The Hague, 5 November 1951
Sijzenlaan 41

Mr William B. SIMPSON,
Managing Editor of Econometrics,
The University of Chicago,
CHICAGO 37, Illinois, USA.

Dear Mr Simpson,

During my absence the three extra copies you asked for were sent to you. Unfortunately some more typing errors have been discovered; therefore I am sending you another four copies with corrections.

In discussions on the paper held at the Hague and at Cambridge some interesting small additions have been born, which I shall send to you within a few days. They relate to page 11, line 9 from the bottom, which will be formulated somewhat differently, whereas about half a page or a page will be added.

Yours very sincerely,

PROF. DR J. TIMBERGEN

The Hague, 5 November 1951
Sijzenlaan 41

Mr William B. SIMPSON,
Managing Editor of Econometrica,
The University of Chicago,
CHICAGO 37, Illinois, USA.

Dear Mr Simpson,

During my absence the three extra copies you asked for were sent to you. Unfortunately some more typing errors have been discovered; therefore I am sending you another four copies with corrections.

In discussions on the paper held at the Hague and at Cambridge some interesting small additions have been born, which I shall send to you within a few days. They relate to page 11, line 9 from the bottom, which will be formulated somewhat differently, whereas about half a page or a page will be added.

Yours very sincerely,