Dear Sir,

In a letter of June 7, 1949 you wrote to dr Verdoorn about a possible Italian translation of my little book "Econometri". May I draw your attention on the fact that recently an English translation of this book has been published by The Blakiston Company, 1012 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 5, USA. Since you made it clear to me that you would prefer an English or German version for your translation I take the liberty to write. Part IV and the appendices of the English version have not been published in the Dutch original; therefore the rights of translation for those parts belong to The Blakiston Company. For the main text these rights belong to messrs J. Noorduyn and Zoon with whom you were already in contact.

Yours very sincerely,
