

PROF. DR JAN TINBERGEN

The Hague, 17 February 1954
Sijzenlaan 41

149
Professor Grason Kirk,
President of the Columbia University
in the City of New York,
New York 27, N.Y.
USA

Dear Sir,

Your invitation of February 9 to participate in the discussion on National Policy for Economic Welfare at Home and Abroad is a great honor to me. Had I still been in the United States, where I spent the first semester of this academic year, I would, no doubt, gladly have accepted your invitation. The discussion will certainly be an event of the first rank in academic life. My duties in my own country make it, however, impossible to attend: my main function being that of a civil servant of the Netherlands government and my academic function being only a part-time one. I hope you will excuse me, and may I repeat my gratitude for your courtesy.

Yours very sincerely,

The Hague, 17 February 1954
Sitzplaats 44

PROF. DR. JAN TIMMERBROEN

USA
New York 27, N.Y.
in the City of New York,
President of the Columbia University
Professor Gerson Kik

Dear Sir,

Your invitation of February 9 to participate in the discussion on National Policy for Economic Welfare at Home and Abroad is a great honor to me. Had I still been in the United States, where I spent the first semester of this academic year, I would, no doubt, gladly have accepted your invitation. The discussion will certainly be an event of the first rank in academic life. My duties in my own country make it, however, impossible to attend: my main function being that of a civil servant of the Netherlands government and my academic function being only a part-time one. I hope you will excuse me, and may I repeat my gratitude for your courtesy.

Yours very sincerely,