

12 December 1950

Mr G. Cederwall,
Château de la Murette,
2, rue André Pascal,
Paris, 16e.

Dear Cederwall,

Recently I was requested by members of the Dutch E.R.P.-group whether I would know someone to lead the national accounting unit. I told him that I don't know anybody appropriate for a leading position since we are ourselves short of people. Now if your phrase: "We are also on the lookout for younger people" means that in addition you want a younger member for the group I am glad to recommend Miss D. van Beusekom a member of the staff of my bureau. Miss van Beusekom did a good job in national accounting, and I can recommend her warmly. But it would be somewhat too early for her to give guidance to such a group on an European basis. If you are interested we can give you all the details on her personality you want.

Yours very sincerely,

